

Chi Lights

Where Are They Now?

They all started at your very own Hanover College. They all share a similar experience. Found out where they are now.

Curt Klus: Graduated in 1960. He is retired from Whirlpool Corporation where he spent 32 years in international marketing and sales. He is currently living in Florida.

Jack Scott: Graduated in 1971. He is currently the President of H.C. Nutting Company and Sr. V.P. of Terracon Consultants. Terracon Consultants is ranked as 41st largest AE Design firm in the nation. He is currently living in Kentucky.

Mark Benbow: Graduated in 1981. Currently teaches American History at Marymount University. His book about Woodrow Wilson and the Mexican Revolution will be published by Kent State University Press this year. Congratulations Brother Mark!

Scott Henry: Graduated in 1986. He is a staff writer for Creative Loafing. Is currently living in Atlanta.

Tony Penna: Graduated in 1993. He is in his fifth year of teaching theatre at Clemson University. He is the Lighting Designer in Residence at the Warehouse Theatre in Greenville, SC, South Carolina Repertory Company in Hilton Head, SC, and the Eleventh Hour Theatre Company in NYC. Currently living in South Carolina.

Phil Daniels: Graduated in 2002. He is currently the owner and president of Tactic Marketing, Inc. He currently lives in Indiana.

Transitions

When I was asked to write something for Chi Lights from the senior aspect; my four years at Hanover have never looked so short. It seems like only yesterday my parents were dropping me off and beginning to me then what seemed to be an indescribable journey. And it is very difficult to describe my journey through college and even harder to describe my journey through Sigma Chi as an undergraduate. But one thing I will say is that my Sigma Chi journey thus far has had many amazing impacts on my life and I look forward to the impacts that it will have on my life in the future. It is very scary to think in a few short months I will be moving upward and onward from Hanover, and from being an active member of Chi Chapter. However I have learned over the past years that change is an inevitable part of life and one should not fear it. I have seen Chi Chapter change a lot over the years and even though I did not always agree with the change, I stuck in there. Change was difficult and will continue to be so but through the change I have gained many important things from Sigma Chi and especially Chi Chapter. Most importantly it has given me a family. A group of men that I have struggled with and gained the most precious lessons anyone could ever gain in the short 21 years of their life. I truly have become a better person from knowing my brothers. Not only knowing their person but their souls. I will always look to my brothers for support and never fear knowing that they will do the same of me. College has prepared me for the world beyond its gates, but I can truly say Sigma Chi has prepared me for the rest of my life. I'm not sure what I want to do after graduation but I do know whatever it may be I am prepared for that change.

In Hoc My Brothers,
Joshua Aaron Shirley '09

Moving Forward

It's been a hard journey in Chi Chapter as of late, many ups and downs. We have an unofficial saying at Chi Chapter that is two steps forward and one step back. Regardless of that step back we are making progress. Each brother has fought with all of his being to make sure that our beloved Chi Chapter stays alive. Several Alumni have also aided us in our hour of need and to them we are extremely grateful. At the closing of this school year it gives me great honor to announce that we have initiated nine new brothers that share the same vigor for the further growth and prosperity of our house that we all do. The house now totals twenty members. We are also now at max capacity in the current house we are living in. Some of our current goals as a house are to keep increasing membership without sacrificing quality and moving back into the Chapter House. My brothers I thank you for all of your support in the past and for all of your tireless efforts to aid us.

In Hoc,
Jacob Tyler Blaker '11

Brothers Before '09 Initiation

Class of '09 at Rush Night

For further information please check the Chi Chapter Alumni website.
<http://www.hanoversigs.org>

